Web Developer

I am a autodidact and eager Web Developer who loves being creative and solution-oriented. My main motivation is to create a better Turkish Dictionary.

Projects

Word Record Book

I built an app that simulates my physical notebook that I write down Turkish words I don't know, so that I can log my words using this app. It can query daily records by a word and fetch the related record to save time.

I learnt and used Asp.NET 6, MsSQL and MsSQL Management Systems, EntityFramework 6 and jQuery to add basic animations to the pages.

The difficult part was to built the form that corresponds to my physical notebook structure. I'm rebuilding this app using Angular and .NET 7 Web API.

Dictionary API

I built a Restful Web API using Asp.NET 7 that I'll consume in Turkish Dictionary. It has CRUD operations that works well.

What I learn while building it is adding JWT Validation and CORS settings. I plan to add Auto Mapper.
